The Case of Dominik Blender vs The State.

State's Attorney:

The state brings charges against the defendant in this matter for assault 1st. The defendant was involved in an altercation where he attacked the victim with a plastic dinner knife. Although plastic, the knife cut through skin and tendon, which required the victim to undergo many surgeries. Your honor, the defendant used a knife, a deadly weapon, to harm the victim.

Defendant's Attorney:

Your honor, the defendant had no way of knowing that a plastic knife would cause that amount of injury. The State must prove every element beyond a reasonable doubt, including the use of a deadly weapon. A plastic knife is not deadly merely because it shares the word knife. The evidence does not show that the defendant believed he was using a deadly weapon.
